

Research Report: who is the highest goal scorer in fifa world cup history? till date?

Research Report

Introduction

The FIFA World Cup has seen many prolific goal scorers, but one player stands above the rest in terms of total tournament goals. As of the latest editions, the record for the most goals scored in World Cup history belongs to a German forward who achieved this milestone across four tournaments. This report identifies that player and provides supporting data.

Key Findings

- Miroslav Klose holds the record with 16 goals scored across four World Cup tournaments (2002, 2006, 2010, 2014).
- His tally surpasses the previous record of 15 goals held by Brazil's Ronaldo.
- Klose achieved this milestone while playing for Germany, becoming the all-time leading scorer in World Cup history.

Conclusion

Therefore, Miroslav Klose is recognized as the highest goal scorer in FIFA World Cup history to date.
